

GIBBONS HOME, PRAISES POPE

American Cardinal Met by Delegation of Baltimore Clergy, Which Will Escort Him to That City for Reception.

HE WILL REMAIN IN BROOKLYN UNTIL FRIDAY.

His Strength, Which Was Taken by Fever, Has Been Regained During Ocean Trip—Papal Policy Not Discussed.

Cardinal James Gibbons returned on the Kaiser Wilhelm der Grosse to-day from his trip to Rome to participate in the election of the new Pope.

A delegation of priests and laymen from Baltimore went down the bay on a revenue cutter to greet him and welcome him home to Baltimore, where a great public reception awaits him.

Headline the delegation were Rev. Dr. J. J. Spofford, of the Catholic University at Washington, and Rev. B. Singleton of Baltimore, and R. B. Tibbitts of Baltimore, Supreme President of the Catholic Benevolent Legion.

It was originally arranged that Cardinal Gibbons would go directly from the pier to Baltimore, where a reception befitting the return of the first American Cardinal to participate in the election of a Pope would be tendered him.

The plans were modified, however, on account of the annual convention of Odd Fellows now in progress in Baltimore. The Cardinal will remain in this city, a guest at the home of Mrs. Kelley, of Brooklyn, until Friday, when he will accompany the delegation to Baltimore. Address of Welcome.

When the welcoming party boarded the Kaiser Wilhelm off Quarantine, Mr. Gibbons made a pleasant voyage, and although he is not a good sailor, he said the ocean trip had recuperated his strength, which had been greatly taxed by a severe spell of fever, due to the intense heat in Rome during the progress of the conclave.

He said that he had been so prostrated by attendance on the conclave and the ceremonies attendant on the consecration of the new Pontiff, that he had to go to the villa of the American College on the sea coast near Rome to recuperate before he was able to undertake his journey home.

Enthusiastic Over Pope.

Of the new Pontiff the Cardinal spoke in terms of the greatest enthusiasm. He said that the choice of the conclave had been most happy from an American viewpoint, as Pius X. was deeply interested in the development of the church in this country, and was singularly familiar with American institutions. The Cardinal had several lengthy interviews with the Pope, feeling that church affairs in this country.

He spoke of the democracy of the Pope, and said that his reign would be marked by a breaking down of the exclusiveness which has heretofore prevailed at the Vatican. Of the simplicity and spirituality of the Pontiff's character he spoke with great feeling, and said that throughout all Italy Pius X. was renowned for his charitable work and his deep interest in the welfare of the poor.

The Cardinal was not inclined to discuss the probable policy of the new Papal regime, but said that no radical changes in American Church administration would ensue.

Orders Exposition Exhibit.

He said that one of the first steps taken by Pius was to instruct his acting secretary of state, Mr. Merry del Val, to provide for an extensive exhibit of the Vatican treasures at the Louisiana Purchase Exposition at St. Louis next spring. He said the exhibit would probably comprise some of the magnificent jubilee gifts of the Pontiff and a number of rare historical manuscripts and maps from the Vatican library relating to the early settlement and mission work in the Louisiana Purchase territory, most of which was penetrated by Catholic missionaries within a quarter of a century of the discovery of the continent.

POPE HAS RHEUMATISM.

LONDON, Sept. 22.—A despatch from Rome to the Leader says the Pope is suffering from rheumatism, and the audience have been suspended. His sister Antonia is critically ill at Venice.

RICHARD WATSON GILDER ILL.

Richard Watson Gilder, editor of the Century magazine, is ill at Lee, Mass., where he went to spend a few days in recreation. He expected to be gone only a short time.

Little regarding his condition is known as the servants at his New York home, No. 13 East Eighth street. It was said there that he had merely received word that he was ill and would not return when expected.

He left the city two weeks ago and the fact that he has remained away so long is causing anxiety among his friends, who fear that his condition may be serious.

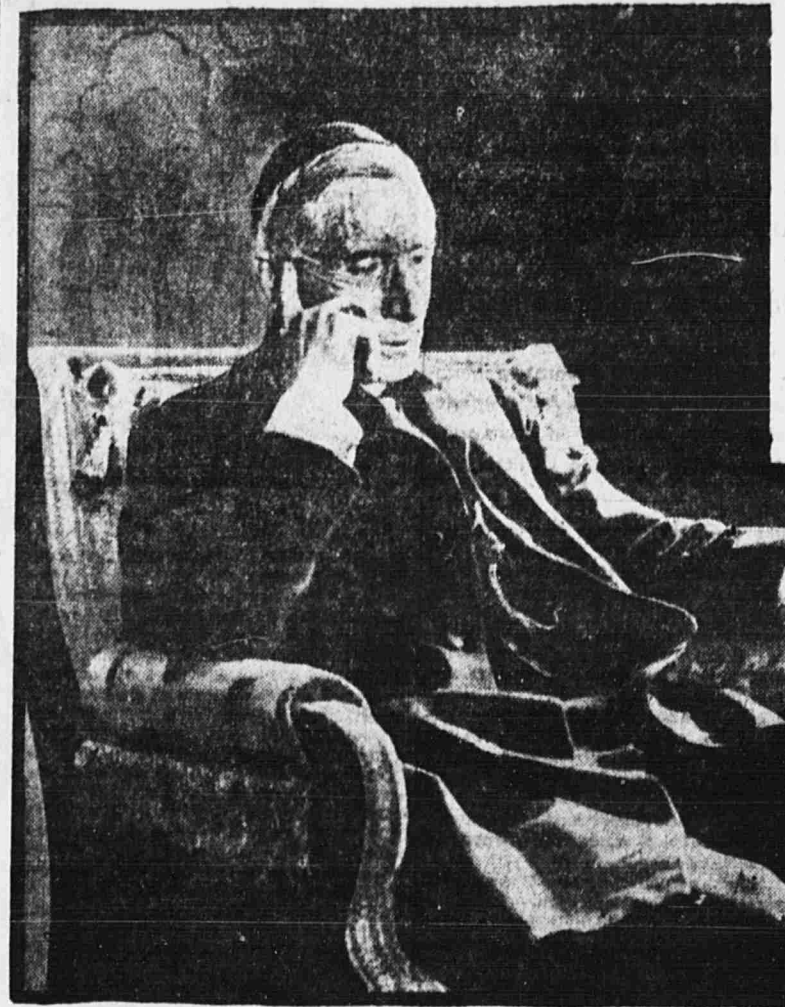

CABMAN DIES OF INJURIES.

William Cox, the cab driver, of No. 10 East Eighth street, whose horse was struck by a northbound car at Forty-fourth street and Broadway last Sunday, throwing Cox to the pavement, died in Roosevelt Hospital early this morning.

SEVEN FIREMEN ARE OVERCOME

Early Morning Fire at Clifton Landing, S. I., Proves a Fierce Battle for Firemen Called to Scene.

In a fire this morning that destroyed the storage house of the Staten Island Electric Lines at Clifton Landing, seven firemen were injured. Some were overcome by smoke and others were hurt by the collapse of a roof. Another was injured by being thrown from the hose cart while driving to the fire, the streets about Clifton being torn up.

The list of injured follows: JAMES FRISKE, member of the Grassmere Hose Company, overcome by smoke, carried out by other members of his company.

WILLIAM WHITE, member of the Grassmere Hose Company, overcome by smoke; carried out by other members of his company.

WILLIAM SHEED, member of Hose Company No. 1, of Stapleton; burned about the face by the collapse of a roof.

THOMAS LEONARD, member of Hose Company No. 2; burned by collapse of roof.

GEORGE PERRY, member of Hose Company No. 3, burned by collapse of roof.

DAVID HUHME, member of Hose Company No. 2, burned by collapse of roof.

OSCAR BOHM, driver for Niagara Hose Company, thrown from his horse while responding to the alarm and injured internally; taken to the company's quarters at Stapleton.

The building is owned by the Baltimore and Ohio company, and most of the material on storage was old in barrels. A few minutes after the alarm had sounded, the flames from the burning oil reached nearly one hundred feet in the air, lighting up the surrounding country and being visible from New York and Brooklyn.

So threatening was the fire that fourteen companies were called out. It was while at work trying to save some of the detached buildings that the men were burned by the roof which fell.

The work of the firemen at one time was hampered by an engine which was being taken to a place of safety. Before the men could remove the lines of hose the engine was run over them, severing four of them. The damage was about $10,000. It is believed the blaze was due to spontaneous combustion.

WOMAN ANSWERS BIGAMY CHARGE

Mrs. Ida Clayton, Arrested on Complaint of First Husband, Says They Parted Because He Ill-Treated Her.

RED BANK, N. J., Sept. 22.—Mrs. Ida Clayton, the wife of James Clayton, has been arrested for bigamy on the complaint of William Cook, of Long Branch, her first husband.

She gave bail in $500 for her appearance before the Grand Jury. The woman, it is claimed, was married to Cook seven years ago, when she was sixteen years old, and became the wife of Clayton in November last.

The woman pleaded not guilty, and says she and Cook parted because he ill-treated her.

TRIED TO END LIFE WITH GAS.

Albert Nordstrom, of No. 124 Brook avenue, attempted to end his life by inhaling gas early to-day. He is now a prisoner in the Lincoln Hospital, and the physicians there believe he will recover.

Nordstrom is twenty-seven years old. The attention of other persons in the house was attracted by the smell of gas, and going to his room, they found him unconscious. An ambulance was called and he was soon out of danger.

SHOT HIMSELF AND LEAPED INTO BAY

Well-Dressed Man, Who Gave the Name of John Dixon, Made a Desperate Effort to End His Life.

So determined was John Dixon, of No. 24 West Fourteenth street, this city, to end his life that he last night shot himself twice in the left breast and then leaped into the bay from one of the Pennsylvania Railroad piers at the foot of Gates avenue, Jersey City. He is suffering greatly in the City Hospital.

John Dixon, who was well dressed, walked out on the pier after dark. Standing close to the edge, he put two bullets into his breast just below the heart and immediately leaped overboard.

The tugboat Alexander Barclay was just then passing. Men on board heard the shots and saw the man jump overboard. They rescued him and took him to the Grand street dock. From there he was taken to the City Hospital, where it was said death would occur in a few hours.

But the patient rallied wonderfully and to-day it is said he will recover. The police notified the New York authorities who investigated and reported that Dixon, if that is his right name, does not live at the address given. There were no papers or valuables on him.

An Evening World reporter saw Dixon at the hospital, but he could not speak. On a piece of paper he wrote his name and address, the same he gave the police. He refused to tell why he tried to end his life.
